

Trainer Auction Agreement

This Agreement is made between Great Lakes Reined Cow Horse Association and _____ (Trainer) for a 30 day (one month) cow horse training donation.

Auction Term

This auction is for 30 days (one month) of cow horse training. Trainer agrees to board, feed and train said horse beginning 2011. Horse owner is responsible for all additional costs to include all transportation costs, veterinary expenses, farrier and any other costs associated with the training and boarding of said horse. Any additional training and/or boarding of the horse, in excess of the 30 day contract, will be between Trainer and horse owner. This is for training of the horse only and does not include lessons or coaching provided to any person(s). Horse owner shall contact Trainer and be responsible for any and all execution of training contract by Trainer. Horse shall be of sound mind and body. Horse shall be broke with proof of current coggins and up to date on all vaccinations. There will be a minimum bid of $300 with $150 of the winning bid being paid to Trainer to pay for feeding of the horse. Owner is responsible for transporting the horse to and from the trainer's facility. Auction will begin on December 15th and end on January 15th. Winner and Trainer will be notified no later than January 30th or as soon as all payments have been received. GLRCHA's involvement in, and responsibility for, the Training Auction Program terminates upon the transfer of training contract to the horse owner and payment of the $150 fee to Trainer.
